

Political and social polarisation in Europe: How to strengthen cohesion in European societies

Programme

---

Tuesday, 3 December 2019 in Kraków (Poland)

---

10:00 - Workshop

13:00

„Political and social polarisation in Europe: How to strengthen cohesion in European societies“

Clémence Ledoux, University of Nantes
Dorota Szelewa, University College Dublin
Katharina Zimmermann, University of Hamburg

Venue: Jagiellonian University Kraków, Faculty of Law and Administration, room 203,
Krupnicza 33a, 31-351 Kraków, in English and only for pre-registered students

18:00 - Panel debate

20:00

„Facing rising divisions of European societies: How can we overcome polarisation in Europe?“

Jean-Marc Ayrault, Former Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of France
Hans-Gert Pöttering, Former President of the European Parliament
Bartłomiej Wróblewski, Member of the Polish Parliament (Sejm) and Chair of the German-Polish Parliamentarian Group, Law and Justice Party (PiS)

Chair: Karolina Zbytniewska, Editor-in-Chief of EURACTIV Poland

Venue: Auditorium Maximum of the Jagiellonian University Kraków, Sala Wystawowa, ul.
Krupnicza 33, 31-351 Kraków

The panel debate will be simultaneously translated into French, German and Polish

21:00 Dinner for organizers, partners and experts

Venue: tba

Please note: There can still be slight amendments to the concrete timing of the event.